MASON COUNTY INDIGENT HEALTH CARE PUBLIC NOTICE September 1, 2021 – August 31, 2022

All residents over the age of 18 who reside in Mason County and fall 100% within the Federal poverty level may be eligible for medically necessary health care benefits as mandated by the State of Texas pursuant to the programs and services offered by Mason County.

Mason County will use rules and procedures found in the County Indigent Health Care Program Handbook published by the Texas Department of State Health Services. In summary, these are the rules:

- 1. Application forms must be completely filled out.
- 2. Verification of identification, income, termination of income, residence, household composition and resources are required.
- 3. Net income is figured on a gross monthly screening table found in the County Indigent Health Care Program Manual.
- 4. Liquid resource assets cannot exceed $2000 or $3000 if the house contains a relative who is aged or disabled. The equity value of a car cannot be greater than $4650. Personal property and homesteads are exempt assets.
- 5. Eligible persons must be a resident of Mason County and intend to stay.
- 6. Applicants must provide all requested information and documentation requested or applications will be denied.
- 7. Applicants have the right to appeal adverse decisions.

Mason County will only accept and pay the Standard Payment rates as determined by Texas Department of State Health Services.

Applications can be picked up from Sheree Hardin at the County Judge's Office located at 205 Westmoreland, Mason, Texas, 76856. Applications are also available online at www.co.mason.tx.us.

Mason County is the payor of last resort. Applicants are not eligible for Indigent Health Care benefits if they are eligible for Medicaid. Program rules and eligibility standards are set by the State of Texas. Mason County does not discriminate on the basis of age, race or gender in administering the Indigent Health Care Program.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

The Mason County Indigent Health Care Program helps people pay for medical care on a shortterm basis. Whether you are eligible depends on your income, what you own, where you live, help you receive and other items. Eligibility guidelines are set by the Texas Department of State Health Services.

To submit an application, fill out the attached forms and submit with all requested documentation. You must provide your own copies of the documentation. If you have any questions, you may call us at (325) 347-5556. Applications may be picked up in our office between 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m., Monday through Thursday or 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., Friday. Completed applications may be returned to us by mail or delivered in person.

Once a completed application is received, a decision regarding your eligibility will be made within 14 days. Our office will notify you by mail of the decision. We ask that you wait to call our office regarding your application until the 14 day period has passed. If your application is submitted and it is incomplete, it will be returned to you by mail with a request for additional information. We will not review incomplete applications for eligibility.

You may be asked to apply for assistance through other program(s) before our department can determine your eligibility status. If you are asked to apply for assistance through other program(s) or you have applied but are awaiting an answer, your application may be held until you are determined to be ineligible for the other assistance program(s).

After turning in a completed application, YOU MUST report any household changes within 14 business days of the change. Examples of changes that require reporting are: address, income, employment, resources, number of people living in the home and any information from other assistance programs.

The statements I have made, including my answers to all questions, are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I agree to give eligibility staff and the county any information necessary to prove statements about my eligibility. I agree to report any of the following changes within 14 days:

- Income
- Resources
- Number of people who live with me
- Address
- Application for or receipt of SSI, TANF or Medicaid

I have been told and understand that this application will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, creed, national origin, age, sex, disability or political belief; that I may request a review of the decision made on my application or recertification for assistance; and that I may request, orally or in writing, a fair hearing about actions affecting receipt or termination of health care assistance.

I understand that by signing this application, I am giving the county the right to recover the cost of health care services provided by the county from any third party.

I agree to give the county any information it needs to identify and locate all other sources of payment for health care services.

I have been told and understand that my failure to meet the obligations set forth may be considered intentional withholding of information and can result in the recovery of any loss by repayment or by filing civil or criminal charges against me.

Before you sign, be sure each answer is complete and correct. If the applicant is married and the spouse is a household member, the spouse may also sign and date this form, even if the spouse is a disqualified household member.

The County Indigent Health Care Program (CIHCP) helps people pay for needed health care. Whether you can get this help depends on your income, what you own, where you live, other help you receive or could receive and other items. Be sure to:

- 1. Complete your name and address;
- 2. Sign and date Page 3 of the application; and
- 3. Answer as many questions as you can on this application.

Turn in or mail back your application today even if you cannot answer all the questions.

Your Responsibilities

You may be asked to bring proof of what you write on your application or what you tell the person interviewing you. If you need help getting proof, the person interviewing you will help. Examples of some of the items you may be asked to prove and documents you can use for proof are listed below.

Where You Live and Plan to Continue Living – Mail that you received at your address; school records; voting records; property taxes, rent or mortgage receipts; Texas driver license; and other official identification.

What You Own and What it is Worth - Property tax appraisals; estimates from car dealers; ads selling similar items; statements from real estate agents; and bank statements.

Your Income – Paycheck stubs; paychecks; W-2 tax forms or income tax returns; sales records; statements from employers; award letters; legal documents; and statements from persons giving you money.

Other Health Care Coverage – Award or claim letters; insurance policies; court documents; and other legal papers. Information regarding Social Security numbers should be given if this information is available. Information regarding sex (male/female) is voluntary. This information will not affect your eligibility.

You must give information about health care insurance and any other third party financially liable for health care services paid by the county for yourself and members of your household. By signing and submitting this application, you are agreeing to give the county the right to recover the cost of health care services provided by the county from any third party.

You may be asked to apply for Medicaid, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits. If you are asked to apply for one of these programs, or have applied but are waiting for an answer, your CIHCP application may be pended until you are determined ineligible for the other program. If you are not eligible for these other programs and if you have answered all the questions on the application and have given all the proof asked for, your application can be processed. Then, the CIHCP must determine if you are eligible within 14 days.

After turning in your application, you must report within 14 days any changes in your address, income, resources, people living with you, or application for or receipt of Medicaid, TANF or SSI.

Mason County Indigent Health Care Fraud Policy

Definition

Fraud is the deliberate misrepresentation of some material fact for the purpose of acquiring benefits.

Procedure

When the Mason County Indigent Health Care Program (MCIHCP) staff has reason to believe that fraud may have occurred, the following procedures shall be followed:

- 1. The MCIHCP staff shall investigate all cases of suspected fraud and collect and document evidence.
- 2. Upon a finding of fraud, the client shall be administratively ineligible from MCIHCP as follows:
 First Offense: 24 months from the date fraud was discovered
 Second Offense: 36 months from the date fraud was discovered
 Third Offense: 48 months from the date fraud was discovered
- 3. The MCIHCP staff shall contact the client who is suspected of fraud by sending a certified letter informing the client of the withdrawal of eligibility and explaining the allegations. If the client disputes the allegations, the client will be allowed to submit applicable supporting documents/verifications for further consideration.
- 4. If the dispute remains unresolved, the MCIHCP staff shall schedule an administrative hearing to allow the client to defend himself by confronting any adverse witness and by presenting his own argument and evidence. The MCIHCP staff must disclose any evidence used to prove its case to the client so he has the opportunity to dispute it. The administrative hearing will be conducted by the Mason County Judge with the Coordinator of the MCIHCP present. The administrative hearing shall be held at the office of the Mason County Judge during normal business hours. The client shall be given thirty (30) days written notice of the date of administrative hearing. The burden of proof lies with the MCIHCP. If the client does not appear at the administrative hearing, the MCIHCP Coordinator may proceed with presentation of the MCIHCP's case only if proof of notice is present. The Mason County Judge will make a final decision within ninety (90) days of the hearing.

Consequence of Fraud

If, after due process, a person is found to have intentionally mispresented information in order to received benefits, that person:

- shall reimburse Mason County for the cost of benefits the client was ineligible to receive;
- shall be administratively ineligible for MCIHCP benefits in accordance with the MCIHCP policies and procedures; and
- may be subject to prosecution under the Texas Penal Code.

Consent to Obtain and Release Information

Applicant:	SSN:
Spouse:	SSN:

I am a member of a household applying for health care assistance from the Mason County Indigent Health Care Program. I understand that in order to determine this household's eligibility or continued eligibility, it is necessary for the Mason County Indigent Health Care Coordinator to verify all earnings and other information.

I authorize any relative, lawyer, employer, landlord, banker, postal savings official, insurance company, fraternal order, government agency, Texas Department of Health and Human Services, Social Security Administration, charitable organization or other person or entity having information about me or my circumstances to furnish such information to a representative of the Mason County Indigent Health Care Program for the purpose of making a determination of whether I meet the eligibility requirements for the Indigent Health Care Program.

I also give permission for any providers treating me to release my medical records to the Mason County Indigent Health Care Program for the purpose of determining proper referrals and/or determining whether or not the services provided meet the criteria for payment by the Mason County Indigent Health Care Program.

I authorize Mason County Indigent Health Care Program to release information in my application to persons and entities named above for the purpose of verifying all earnings and other information and to make a determination of my eligibility for the Mason County Indigent Health Care Program.

I understand that as part of the provision of healthcare services, Mason County creates and maintains health records and other information describing, among other things, my health and medical history, symptoms, examination and test results, diagnoses, treatment and any plans for future care of treatment.

I have been provided with a Notice of Privacy Practices that provides a more complete description of the uses and disclosures of certain health information. I have read and understand this document. I consent to the use and disclosure, by Mason County Indigent Health Care Program, of my medical and health information and/or protected health information as is stated in the Notice of Privacy Practices.

This authorization is effective for one (1) year from the date of signature below.

Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights.

This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record	 You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this. We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.
Ask us to correct your medical record	 You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this. We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.
Request confidential communications	 You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. We will say "yes" to all reasonable requests.
Ask us to limit what we use or share	 You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care.
	 If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.
Get a list of those with whom we've shared information	 You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.
Get a copy of this privacy notice	 You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.
Choose someone to act for you	 If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
	 We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.
File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated	 You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on page 1.
	 You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/ privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
	• We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:	 Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care Share information in a disaster relief situation Include your information in a hospital directory If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.
In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:	 Marketing purposes Sale of your information Most sharing of psychotherapy notes
In the case of fundraising:	• We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.

Our Uses and isclosures	How do we typically use or share your health information? We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.
Treat you	 We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you. 	Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor about your overall health condition.
Run our organization	 We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary. 	Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services.
Bill for your services	• We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.	Example: We give information about you to your health insurance plan so it will pay for your services.

How else can we use or share your health information? We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

Help with public health and safety issues	 We can share health information about you for certain situations such as: Preventing disease Helping with product recalls Reporting adverse reactions to medications Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety
Do research	• We can use or share your information for health research.
Comply with the law	 We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.
Respond to organ and tissue donation requests	 We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.
Work with a medical examiner or funeral director	• We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.
Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests	 We can use or share health information about you: For workers' compensation claims For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services
Respond to lawsuits and legal actions	• We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

Changes to the Terms of this Notice

We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our web site.
